

Visiting International Student Program

VISP welcomes students interested in short-term study at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. Participants enroll in regular university courses taught by world-class faculty and leave with the knowledge, friends and memories they gained, as well as an official transcript for the work they completed.

Experience UW-Madison student life!

VISITING INTERNATIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM

Why Choose Wisconsin

The University of Wisconsin–Madison is consistently ranked among the best public institutions and research facilities in the world. Madison, a beautiful Midwestern city of 270,000 residents, is one of the safest U.S. cities. UW–Madison is home to 50,000 students from 130 countries studying in more than 200 academic areas.

Admissions Requirements

Applicants must meet the university’s high academic standards and have a strong proficiency in English. Open to undergraduate and graduate-level students as well as those not currently enrolled in a university.

Academic Calendar

We welcome VISP participants for one or more academic terms.

FALL	SPRING
Early September to mid-December	Mid-January to mid-May
SUMMER
3–8 week terms between late-May and mid-August

Scan to visit our website